Detailed Action

This is the third Office Action corresponding to amendment filed Mar 21, 2006.

The application contains 52 claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 41-43, and 52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The subject matter recited in claims 41 and 52 do not appear to be found in the disclosure.

Claims 49-52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. No proper antecedent is found in claim 49 for “the mouse pad support”.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Claim 41 recites that the second bracket further comprises a swivel means. Page 13 of the specification recites a swivel means connected the second bracket, not that the bracket comprises a swivel means. Both elements are recited as being separated and distinct.

As to claim 52, page 18 of the specification recites a spring ball mechanism 41 in cooperation with an aperture 42 to engage the arms together (as recite in claim 50).

Claim 52 recites a spring means biasing the arms. Where is the spring means?

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-29, and 40-48 are allowed.

Claims 49-51 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, set forth in this Office action.
